

APLE

Assumption Program of Loans for Education

2008-09 Out-of-State Teachers Application Packet

What is APLE Out-of-State?

The APLE for Out-of-State Teachers is designed to encourage out-of-state teachers to seek K-12 teaching positions in California's public schools. Selected participants will be eligible for the assumption of up to $11,000* of their outstanding educational loans in return for four consecutive years of full-time teaching service in a designated subject matter shortage area or in schools serving large populations of students from low-income families, low-performing schools, schools serving rural areas, state special schools, or in schools with a high percentage of emergency permit teachers.

Note:* APLE participants who agree to, and provide, four years of consecutive teaching service in math, science or education specialist instruction (formerly special education) may receive up to $1,000 of additional loan assumption benefits each year, for a total of $15,000. Another $1,000 of benefits each year may be received by persons who teach math, computer science or education specialist instruction in a school ranked in the lowest 20th percentile of the Academic Performance Index, for a total of $19,000.

Applying for APLE Out-of-State is a two-step process
